BARBARA FOX

Barbara Fox is recognized for still life and floral subjects in watercolor and oil. Her meticulously crafted paintings are exhibited and collected internationally, have received numerous awards, and have been selected for publication in fine art books and magazines. Barbara's work has been published in four editions of the watercolor publication Splash: the Best of Watercolor Painting. She has been a featured artist in the leading national art magazines American Artist and Watercolor Magic. She leads watercolor workshops around the country, teaching her method of layering washes and painting details. She is a signature member of the National Watercolor Society and the International Guild of Realism, among others.

Barbara's Artist Statement:

My working method pays homage to the Dutch masters and the tradition of academic painting. I work from life and photographs. Watercolor and oil paintings begin as detailed drawings to which a number of glazes are applied, building deep values and rich colors. The process of completing these works may take many weeks, so I usually have several paintings in process at once. Creating artwork is both a meditation and an adventure that opens my eyes to our beautiful world.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear NFWS friends:

I hope you've done some inspiring summer sketching/painting/seeing/traveling/relaxing! I've done a bit of all those things and I'm now ready to absorb new techniques, hints, and inspiration.

Barbara Fox, our September artist, seems well suited to provide all of that. Her work is classic beautifully executed paint-craft. Can't wait!

And right after Barbara, we'll welcome Linda Lucas, early NFWS member and supporter, as our October workshop artist. I've long admired the sensitivity and skill that Linda brings to her art. Linda's workshop, to be held at the Kenan Center, has filled but you'll have an opportunity to watch her weave her magic when she demonstrates at the October Members Meeting at the Burchfield Penney Art Center.

Incidentally, Linda has donated a quite beautiful painting to NFWS that we will raffle off this Fall. Tickets are $5 apiece or five for $20.

Also coming up is the Fall Juried Exhibit, October 14-November 19, at the Kenan Center. Sixty-six artists submitted 119 paintings. Sixty-eight paintings have been accepted. The Artists Reception and Awards Ceremony will be held on Sunday, October 21, 2-5 pm with awards presented at 3:30.

I look forward to seeing all of you in September. I love what we do and I am so grateful for the many Board and Committee members who make it all possible. They are listed elsewhere in this issue along with the year's schedule of Guest Artists. Set aside the time to partake of the bounty and lend a hand when you can. And say thanks when you see the workers.
