

About The Niagara Frontier Watercolor Society

Founded in 1980, the Niagara Frontier Watercolor Society is a Not for Profit, 501C3, organization for artists and art lovers interested in transparent watercolor. Our primary purpose is to advance the stature of watercolor as a major medium through education, and to foster the appreciation and interest of both the artist and the viewing public. It is the largest, and most active watercolor society in Western and Central New York, more than 250 members strong. The Society holds two juried exhibitions each year, sponsors a National Juried Show every two years, and two weeklong workshops featuring nationally renowned artist/teachers. This show, the Spring 2022 Members' Show, is a juried members transparent watercolor show. We are pleased to be showing 42 transparent watercolor paintings from 34 members!

William Skip Lawrence: Expressive Artist

"I love everything about painting. I love feeling the paint, seeing a rich color spread under my brush onto a surface and the play between colors coming together. I love watching my idea take form until a painting finally says "it" and I am surprised and delighted every time. I love sharing my art and knowing that someone is moved by it. I see no hierarchy among realism, abstraction, non-objective painting styles. I see only the relationship of colors, shapes, surface and line that either thrills or bores me. When these elements come together to communicate an artist's intention to the viewer, to connect with someone, it is nothing short of wonderful."
