GLENN BLUE

October Workshop Artist

Glenn E. Blue grew up in a family of artists in the suburbs of Philadelphia, PA. His parents were art teachers at local schools. He has trained in fine arts since childhood and by his teenage years Glenn was selling paintings professionally and had shown in countless local, regional, national and international shows. He has travelled to numerous places in Europe painting and collecting art. He has taken many workshops and private lessons over the years. Glenn was in the US Navy from 1984 to 1988, and then entered the Pennsylvania State Police. For years he was assigned to the Violent Felony Fugitive Task Force in Philadelphia and served his last few years as a supervisor in Criminal Investigations. He spent many days rushing home from crime scenes to get to his studio or art opening. He is now retired from the State Police to continue his pursuit of art.

Glenn paints loose, glowing, impressionistic, yet representational watercolors on his many plein air painting trips as well in his studio. He attempts to artistically represent his subjects’ atmosphere, without adding every detail. He is considered one of the region’s best snow scene watercolorists. Glenn has been represented by the Chadds Ford Gallery and the Barbara Moore Gallery in the Brandywine area of Pennsylvania for many years.

OCTOBER 2022

Dear Fellow Artists,
I hope everyone is finding time to enjoy this fall which seems to have descended on us in one fell swoop on September 22nd. Not many leaves turning yet, but the air is definitely crisp.

We had a great demo by Sheila Reigh on the 15th of September. I am so grateful to all of the people who helped us set up and take down the equipment and the chairs. We truly had a "village" that night. And Sheila provided us with some wonderful tips on transferring images to watercolor paper and how to create a realistic dew drop on a flower petal. Her clear instructions including handout proves what a great, well trained teacher she is.

Our next event will be on October 9th at the Kenan Center in Lockport. We will have the opening reception and announcement of award winners for our fall show from 2-5. I hope you can join us. If you can't make it to the show itself, the images and winners will be posted on our NFWS website.

Then on October 20th at 7 p.m. we will have the Zoom demo by Glen Blue who is our talented workshop artist. There is a link to his website on the NFWS web page if you would like to get a preview of his work. Look for the invitation and Zoom link in your in-box in the week prior to the demo.

So stay warm and keep painting.
